

The Coalition Against Global Genocide and the Denver Urban Spectrum presents

Genocide and Slavery Virtual Discussion Series

What If Democracy Fails

Live Zoom Presentation – Open to the Public

October 8

Dehumanization as an Initial Weapon in the Commission of Genocide

November 12

U.S. and its Continued Refusal to Confront its Atrocities

December 10

Addressing the Psychology of the Bystanders, Perpetrators and Upstanders

All discussions will be held on Thursdays from 7 to 9 PM.

October Discussion Series Speakers:

Ved P. Nanda

"Distinguished professor of Law at the University of Denver and founder of the Ved Nanda Center for International and Comparative Law"

Ken Scott

"International war crimes prosecutor and former UN Commissioner on Human Rights in South Sudan"

The Coalition Against Global Genocide is a non-profit organization whose mission is to educate, motivate and empower individuals and communities to oppose

Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity.

For more information on the discussion series call 303-856-7334 or email Executive Director, Roz Duman at rozduman@aol.com.

To register or for more information on the Coalition Against Global Genocide, visit www.CoAGG.org.

